Sankhard Company Limited

ABOUT

Fruitfulvale is the international expression of Jamaica's own Springvale brand of foods—a brand born of the land, shaped by ingenuity, and sustained by trust. Created to carry our products into the UK and USA under a distinct global name, Fruitfulvale remains firmly rooted in the brand Jamaicans and the Caribbean diaspora have known and loved since 2011. This is not a departure, but a continuation: the same recipes, the same Jamaican ingredients, and the same commitment to quality—presented for a wider world.

Our journey began on a small farm nestled in the Blue Mountains of Portland, where Springvale Estate once supplied Blue Mountain coffee and later inspired a bold transformation. From this soil emerged Jamaica's first nationally produced salad dressings and vinaigrettes, followed by a growing range of condiments, sauces, vinegars, spreads, and pepper jellies celebrating the island's harvest—June Plum, Guava, Sorrel, Mango, Ginger, Turmeric, and Scotch Bonnet pepper.

Innovation has always been our instrument, from pumpkin-based ketchups and fruit-forward BBQ sauces to specialty flours—each product honouring Jamaican flavour, freshness, and self-reliance. Under the Fruitfulvale name, that same spirit now reaches the diaspora and new markets, carrying the taste of home forward with purpose and pride.

Mara Harding

ABOUT

Mara Harding is a self-taught 'woodologist' who, for over a decade, rescued trees across her island and transformed them into thousands of one-of-a-kind pieces for homes, villas, hotels, restaurants, offices, and public spaces.

Under the brand Mara Made Designs, her work spanned bespoke furniture, lighting, art, décor, and homeware, each piece guided by intuition and a deep ability to reawaken the living essence of every tree.

Following extensive damage to her operations caused by Hurricane Melissa, Mara saw an opportunity to pivot rather than pause. She now translates her deep connection with trees into a new form: wearable art.

Her creations are made for the daring and self-assured, those who command attention through originality. Every piece carries an undeniable presence; no two are ever the same.

The Mara Harding brand embodies the spirit of Jamaica: bold, expressive, rhythmic, and unapologetic. Like the island itself, it does not ask for permission to be seen.

Mara Harding is not accessory jewelry. It is identity.
